My deep connection is my true home
I honor that I belong to this endless love
From inside and from above

Our deep connection is our true home
From here we mirror where we are all from
We are heavens love from inside and from above

Glorious shining is what we bring
Let your heart open wide when we sing
To the love you are come on let´s shine precious star

Shine on and bring back true love to your life
We shine and we bring back true love to the world
