CD: „ Love Is Who We Are“ 2015

There is something very still
In every second of the time
It lives in every cell in every part of you

Oh there is something very still
That lives inside of every cell
Surrender to the ocean of true love and true life
...stillness whispering to you

I stay with you
Never I will leave you
I'll stay with you
Never I will leave you

I'll stay so close to you
I'll stay so close to you

And my heart will always sing
My heart will always sing

I will always be held in your arms
I will always be held in your arms oh god

I stay with you
Never I will leave you
I'll stay with you
never I will leave you

I will always be held in your arms - Forever forever forever
I will always be held in your arms - Forever forever forever
I will always be held in your arms - Forever forever forever
I will always be held in your arms - Forever forever forever

All my heart will sing this melodie
Let us sing this melodie of love
Our hearts will sing this melodie
Let us sing this melodie of love

There is something very still
