

Already There

(„Es Ist Schon Da“)

Music & Lyrics by Andrea Leonhardi / www.heavensjoyfullmusic.com / CD: Under The Stars 2016

Are you searching - your heart pulls you forward
Life turns around in circles

You feel so much more than ever before
It is what the soul knows

You sense there must be something deep and profound
Residing within us all
Now it's time to admit what lives gloriously
And shining inside of you

Now I will seek it
I know I will find it
I am sure it is held in my innermost deep within

I take it literally that I am divine
When I come from the spring I know who I am
Oh delight at the spring - Don't look outside
I learn again to trust what I feel

Now I found it
And I will share it
Equally it lays silently inside of you

Will you seek it - You will find it
You have known it within you - very true :

What you are searching for is there - Already there
What you are searching for is there - Already there
What you are searching for is there - Already there
What you are searching for is there - Already there
What you are searching for is there - Already there
