

Goodbye

Written by Andrea Leonhardi, Robbie Boyd and Urs Fuchs

I used to walk around being hard and blind
Seeking what I'm seeking but from the outside
'Till someone came along and said I might be wrong
And soon I found my innocence return

Well I used to tolerate love as abuse
Most of my relationships weren't based on truth
But now I'm letting go, and flowing in my flow
I'm moving to the pulse of my innermost

So I'll say goodbye to my old ways
'Cause I want to be free
And I'll feel the Fire that fills me up
And burns inside of me
Oh it burns inside of me

I'm opening the lid on everything I've learned
Like seeing how important it is to observe
And never holding back I'm breaking out of that contract
It's time to bring awareness to our world

So I'll say goodbye to my old ways
'Cause I want to be free
And I'll feel the Fire that fills me up
And burns inside of me
Oh it burns inside of me

Put the pieces of our purpose
All together, in service
Are you listening to the meaning,
Of what your being here on earth is?

So I'll say goodbye to my old ways
'Cause I want to be free
And I'll feel the Fire that fills me up
And burns inside of me

Oh I'll say goodbye to my old ways
'Cause I want to be free
And I'll feel the Fire that fills me up
And burns inside of me
Oh it burns inside of me
Yes it burns inside of me
