

Keep On

Music & Lyrics Andrea Leonhardi 2018 | www.heavensjoyfullmusic.com

Everything I know is coming from my soul
When I allow the wind of wisdom to sing through me

We are guided all we need is the power let come through
Surrender and embracing not knowing what will come

Our wings spread wide – the love we are with each other a delight
We keep going from our heart we express the love we feel we are

We know we are from the stars
We bring a new light we break through the dark
Remember there´s your spark deep inside
Bring all of you - nothing more to do

Keep on walking let divine power come through
The soul will set the rules you are a part of what we bring back unified

Our wings spread wide – the love we are with each other a delight
We keep going from our hearts we express the love we feel we are

Everything I know is coming from my soul
When I allow the wind of wisdom to sing through me
We are guided all we need is the power let come through
Surrender and embracing knowing what will come

Mm m m m mmmm m m m m m m m m mmmm

We are guided all we need is the power let come through
Surrender and embracing knowing what will come
