Music & Lyrics Andrea Leonhardi 2019 | www.heavensjoyfullmusic.com

I feel the gold that you hold me in like the sunlight you're pure fire
Far away beyond the dark deep blue is where you come from
And the rainbow spreads its wings far beyond

And never will we fall from the heavens that are all
Ever will we be held in their hands
Ever will we be guided by the plan and mighty power
Of higher heavens deepest truth of higher heavens

I feel the gold that you hold me in like the sunlight you're pure fire
Far away beyond the dark deep blue is where you come from
And the rainbow spreads its wings far beyond

And never will we fall from the heavens that are all
Ever will we be held in their hands
Ever will we be guided by the plan and mighty power
Of higher heavens deepest truth of higher heavens

Never will we fall from the heavens that are all
Ever will we be held in their hands
Ever will we be guided by the plan and mighty power
Of higher heavens deepest truth of higher heavens

Never will we fall from the heavens that are all
Ever will we be held in their hands
Ever will we be guided by the plan and mighty power
Of higher heavens deepest truth of higher heavens

Never will we fall from the heavens that are all
Ever will we be held in their hands
Ever will we be guided by the plan and mighty power
Of higher heavens deepest truth of higher heavens
