

Back To Soul

Written by Andrea Leonhardi, Robbie Boyd and Urs Fuchs

Walking through the fields of old
The wind blows through my hair
Talking about the ways of old
Bringing back true care

We've got all we need
Waiting there inside
We're letting out our love
As our hearts open wide

No more hurt,
As we return
On our path
Back, back, back to Soul
Strong we are
Like the stars
Burning bright
Back, back, back to Soul
Back, back, back to Soul

Waking up in innocence
Each morning brings a smile
Moving in a different way
Feeling like a child

Trust your inner-heart
You can free your mind
The beauty that you are
Is there for you to shine

No more hurt,
As we return
On our path
Back, back, back to Soul
Strong we are
Like the stars
Burning bright
Back, back, back to Soul
Back, back, back to Soul

When you appreciate
What you bring to life
You might find your purpose

You know we're all the same
Underneath our skin
Deep within is the journey

No more hurt,
As we return
On our path
Back, back, back to Soul
Strong we are
Back, back, back to Soul

No more hurt,
As we return
On our path
Back, back, back to Soul
Strong we are
